

A number of stereotypes and problematic phrases subtly exist everywhere beyond any region or country. Phrases manifesting stereotypes are generated as if forming a set of colonial thinking algorithms to serve the homogeneous – non-marginalized people.

This colonial viewing system is nuanced, microaggressions pervade society slipping off tongues unabated, perpetuating the colonial perspective and stamping out 'the other'. Unconscious bias disseminates a romanticized idea of the outsider: their difference, their body, their cultural perspective.

Indigenous bodies operating within this system, perhaps without a solid cultural identity, become a touristed body or romanticized body. History and knowledge are narrated by marks, society is structured by engraving and stamping. These actions stamp out non-materialized oral-based indigenous knowledge and histories generating vulnerability.

Unwanted Exchange solo exhibition attempts to explore this vulnerability by contemplating the relationship between the 'engraving & stamping' culture and a marginalized (scarred) body – a continuation of concepts explored in previous performances and the Raw <-> Ripened <-> Happiness piece.

「迫印」林安琪個展
2021年3月7日至4月30日

許多刻板印象和具有問題性的話語巧妙地存在於任何地區與國家，這些刻板印象的話語如同一套殖民思考演算法，來服務於主流社會觀看模式，如此殖民觀看系統是既細微又不容易被發現的。

「微歧視」佈滿在現今社會之中，透過無意的言語延續殖民觀點對於他者的想像。在這個觀看系統內的少數族群，如果沒有牢固的文化認同與認知，很容易內化外部給予的意識型態與無意的偏見。

而身體時常性地被浪漫化、光觀化。歷史和知識透過刻印和印壓記載，這些內容記載的行為對於以非物質的口述歷史知識為基礎的少數民族，造成了脆弱性。

《迫印》個覽試圖聯想刻印文化與被邊緣化（疤痕化）的身體之間的關係來探索這種身體的脆弱性，同時也延續先前《生<->熟<->福》作品的概念。
