Dancing Sun Foundation with Scarecrow Contemporary Dance Company of Taiwan present

Fall in Love with Formosa

Friday, June 1, 8pm Carriage House Theatre

Tickets: $20 General / $15 Members / $8 Students

Taiwanese choreographers and performers, Bih-tau Sung (Dancing Sun Foundation), and Wen-jinn Luo and Han-chieh Tso (Scarecrow Contemporary Dance Company) present an evening of modern and traditional Chinese dance. Fall in Love with Formosa features four works inspired by historical events and literary texts. Utilizing the physical laws of friction, momentum, gravity, and inertia, the choreography explores human relations and experience.

Sung is an acclaimed choreographer of ballet, modern, and traditional Chinese dance and opera techniques. Her professional career began in 1974 when she was recruited to join the prestigious Cloud Gate Dance Theater. In 1999, Sung founded the Dancing Sun Foundation, where she is the artistic director.

Founded in 1989 in Taiwan, Scarecrow Contemporary Dance Company has toured internationally performing in China, New York, Portugal, and France.
