

Sirius

Harmonica Ensemble

Sirius Harmonica Ensemble is the recipient of Harmonica Groups World Champion at the 2017 World Harmonica Festival (WHF). The group was also invited to serve as jury members, guest performers, and lecturers at the WHF in 2013, 2021, and 2025. In both 2022 and 2023, the ensemble was selected as a Taiwan Top Performing Arts Group by the National Culture and Arts Foundation, Taiwan. In the past decade, they have remained active across various international harmonica festivals and invited performances throughout Europe and Asia, including the Asia Pacific Harmonica Festival, Seoul International Harmonica Festival, Harmonica F E N Festival, HUAXIA Harmonica Festival and Penang Harmonica Festival. Known for its diverse musical style that mainly spans Latin, tango, jazz, and pop, and Sirius Harmonica Ensemble is now recognized as one of the most influential harmonica groups on the international stage. The ensemble is also deeply committed to the education and promotion of harmonica music in Taiwan. In addition to annual concerts and nationwide tours, the group has organized the Taiwan Harmonica Music Festival (THMF) since 2014. Today, the THMF has become the largest annual harmonica event in Taiwan and one of the most significant harmonica festivals in East Asia.

The members of the Sirius Harmonica Ensemble include:

Director & Chord Harmonica: Yen-Ming Chen

Chromatic Harmonica: Yi-Hsiang Chen, Ming-Hsien Tsai, Chao-Teng Chang,
Yen-Hua Wang

Bass Harmonica: Kuan-Chih Huang

National Culture and Arts Foundation

