

「兔子洞」 The Rabbit Hole

一百多年前，充滿好奇心的小女孩愛麗絲追著奇怪的兔子掉進了兔子洞，光怪陸離的世界，瑰麗詭譎也混沌不明。

那段旅程是冒險、也是啟蒙體驗。

從那之後兔子洞變成一個奇異未知世界或複雜無解情境的代名詞，逃離與回歸，像魔術口袋，現實與奇幻一體兩面，反映著觀者的自我定位與渴望。

此展覽以『兔子洞』為名，藝術家展示她眼中的現實，如同Lewis Carroll透過異世界的角色說：「我並不奇怪、怪誕，也不瘋癲，只是我眼中的現實跟你眼中的現實不同。」

Over a century ago, Alice, a curious little girl, fell into a rabbit hole while chasing a strange rabbit. That bizarre world was magnificent, treacherous, and chaotic. It was a journey that was an adventure and an enlightening experience.

Since then, the rabbit hole has become synonymous with a strange, unknown world or a complex, unsolvable condition. Escape and return, like a magic pocket, are two sides of reality and fantasy, reflecting the viewer's self-orientation and desire.

Titled "Rabbit Hole," this exhibition showcases the artist's reality, like Lewis Carroll states through the character of another world, "I am not crazy; my reality is just different from yours."
